Incident Summary:

Numerous civil disturbances are taking place in multiple cities across the U.S., some turning violent. Due to acts of vandalism, arson, and trespassing, many jurisdictions imposed curfews and facility lockdowns, as well as declaring States of Emergency and activating National Guard units. Governors and mayors are working with law enforcement to discourage violence and restore order.

Key Points:

- Curfews put in place across the country due to civil unrest
- Multiple instances of civil disturbances continue nationwide
- Open source reports more than 4,400 people have been arrested across the U.S.
- All federal prisons are under a complete lockdown

CRITICAL INFRASTRUCTURE IMPACTS

COMMERCIAL FACILITIES

(Public Assembly)

On 02 Jun, a protest of approximately 300 people is expected outside the Delaware State Capitol.

A protest is scheduled from 02 Jun to 05 Jun in Fenton, MO at the Sabre plant. Sabre produces police, military, and corrections pepper spray.

EMERGENCY SERVICES

(Law Enforcement)

The New York Police Department has suspended all solo patrols in response to violent protests.

FOOD AND AGRICULTURE

Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency Integrated Operations Division

The Pennsylvania Department of Human Services briefed on 01 Jun, they are having food supply/distribution issues with current protests taking place in several locations.

GOVERNMENT FACILITIES

The Federal Bureau of Prisons (BOP) has placed all of their facilities on complete lockdown, due to large gatherings and rioting for the first time in 25 years. The bureau runs 122 institutions nationwide and approximately 165,575 inmates were in the federal system as of Monday night.

(Elections)

Many states are adjusting their curfew Tuesday, due to the primary elections being held.

TRANSPORTATION SYSTEMS

(Highway and Motor Carrier)

Multiple roads, bridges, and highways have closed in the active areas of unrest.
